Stewardship for Grace Cathedral 2017

GRACE CATHEDRAL

WHAT IS Stewardship?

Stewardship is a cherished practice of the Episcopal Church that helps us connect our lives to the core mission of Grace Cathedral. With our annual financial gifts, we deepen our own spiritual awareness of our blessing and share with others in service. At Grace Cathedral, stewardship is part of how we open our spiritual home to San Francisco and the world.

CATHEDRAL STEWARDSHIP

ABOUT 400 HOUSEHOLDS PARTICIPATE

LOVINGLY CONTRIBUTING ABOUT $800,000 TO THE ANNUAL BUDGET

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Together as a community, we have been exploring the theme of "Home" in cathedral life this year. During this season of stewardship, I invite you to reflect on how we as individuals share God's love as hosts of this beloved cathedral with our city and our world.

We open our hearts to San Francisco every day, through worship and music, outreach and arts, civic dialogue and educational programs. The impact is everywhere you look – in the voices of our choirs, in the joy of liturgy, in the poses of hundreds of practicing yogis on Tuesdays, and on the faces of our seniors and volunteers. I am so grateful for your love and generosity. It makes our life together possible.

If you call Grace your home, I welcome you to renew your support or to join us with your pledge.

Love,

The Very Rev. Dr.
Malcolm Clemens Young
Dean of Grace Cathedral

HOW DO I Pledge?

Pledging is easy with a pledge card or online at gracecathedral.org/pledge. Payments may be made in weekly or monthly installments, or paid in full when you submit your pledge. No gift is too small to participate, and you can refer to the enclosed chart to learn about proportional giving.

WHAT IS Ingathering?

Ingathering is an annual, celebratory tradition during which members of the congregation submit their pledges for the upcoming year. For the 2017 stewardship year, Ingathering is on Sunday, November 20, 2016.

Grace is blessed by dedicated volunteer and staff leadership, for which we are ever-thankful.
