Welcome to Grace Cathedral

Welcome to this sacred house of prayer. Those who built and care for this sanctuary love tradition and feel passionate about engaging with what is new. If you look closely you will find images of scientists, reformers, Jewish rabbis and Roman Catholic popes, statesmen, saints, an astronaut and even animals like pelicans, raccoons, frogs and bears. They remind us of God's love for all creation. We invite you to be part of this joyful community even if your visit is short. Every year we celebrate a theme. This year our theme is truth. We are asking what is the truth about our self, each other, the world and God. Let us know what truth you are coming to know. May God bless you on your journey!

Love,
The Very Rev. Dr. Malcolm Clemens Young, Dean of Grace Cathedral

- If you are new to Grace Cathedral, please introduce yourself and fill out a welcome card so we can be in touch with you. We're glad you're here!

about today's readings

Jeremiah 31:31-34, Hebrews 5:5-10, John 12:20-33

Reading texts can be found at the end of the service leaflet.

As we walk our Lenten pilgrimage and grow closer to the time of Christ's passion and sacrifice, the approaching truth of what must be casts a chill shadow across our path. We can choose to hear thunder instead of God's voice. We can armor ourselves against loss and willfully misunderstand what we're being told about where we're going and what will happen to the one we love when we arrive. It's not a surprising response. Heaven knows there are losses and partings enough in this world; we don't need to go looking for them, do we? Can we just have a moment to pretend this isn't happening?

As always, Jesus walks ahead of us. Look at this grain — it's so neat and whole now, but as it's broken open and buried, it will offer untold abundance. Look at my body — where a shameful punishment will be translated, by grace, into a mighty welcome for all into God's loving embrace. In our willingness to be opened is our salvation.

How can we respond, faithfully and truthfully, to God's self-giving? Our limits and our failings are as known and loved by God as our resilience and our possibilities. Nothing can stop us from being beloved and included — except our own closed eyes and ears.

THE NICENE CREED

Sung on monotone. The people stand.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son
he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Servants of your grace.

MOTET

Piotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky

Choir When Jesus Christ was yet a child he had a garden small and wild, Wherein he cherished roses fair, and wove them into garlands there. Now once, as summertime drew nigh, there came a troop of children by, And seeing roses on the tree, with shouts they plucked them merrily. "Do you bind roses in your hair?" they cried, in scorn, to Jesus there. The boy said humbly: "Take, I pray, all but the naked thorns away." Then of the thorns they made a crown, and with rough fingers pressed it down, Till on his forehead fair and young red drops of blood like roses sprung.

The Readings

JEREMIAH 31:31-34

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord”, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

HEBREWS 5:5-10

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you”; as he says also in another place, “You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

JOHN 12:20-33

Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor. Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.”
